IGCSE Assessment

Cambridge IGCSE is already the world's most popular international qualification for 14 – 16 year olds. It is taken by learners in over 140 countries around the world. Over 1300 schools in the UK are now teaching Cambridge IGCSE, and it continues to gain popularity with more and more joining the Cambridge community. Cambridge IGCSE, which provides excellent preparation for the Cambridge Advanced stage including Cambridge International AS and A Levels and Cambridge Pre-U, as well as other progression routes. It incorporates the best in international education for learners at this level; and in some parts of the world, schools use Cambridge IGCSE as an international alternative to the local government's examination. It develops in line with changing needs, and is regularly updated and extended. Cambridge IGCSE is widely recognised by higher education institutions and employers around the world as evidence of academic ability. Each learner's performance is benchmarked using eight internationally recognised grades (A*-G). In some countries, IGCSE qualifications will satisfy the entry requirements for university. In others, they are widely used as a preparation for A Level, AS, International Baccalaureate and US Advanced Placement courses. Grade C in IGCSE English First Language satisfies the English proficiency requirements of many universities in the UK and other Anglophone countries.
